Please, note that abstracts marked with an asterisk (*) are oral communications.

The Scientific Committee has chosen the papers on the basis of the originality of the research and the originality of the results. The authors are responsible for the text and the translation.