The article/chapter cited was prepared by a U.S. Department of Agriculture employee as part of his/her official duties. Copyright protection under U.S. Copyright Law Title 17 U.S.C. § 105 is not available for such works. Accordingly, there is no copyright to transfer. The fact that the private publication in which the article appears is itself copyrighted does not affect the material of the U.S. Government, which can be freely reproduced by the public. Articles and other publications prepared as part of a Federal employee's official duties are property of the U.S. Government.

No royalty income or other compensation may be accepted for work done as part of official duties. An employee may not designate, recommend, nor specify donation of compensation to a charitable organization. Compensation does not include copies of publications or similar articles that provide a record of the writing activity. The Government employee, on behalf of the Agency, may accept a limited number of reprints or copies of the publication. Materials received should be distributed/maintained according to Agency procedures.
