Figure / Appendix. Correlation coefficients of factors associated with SCD change with time after MI. The percent of total variation (y-axis) in each model explained by each clinical variable (z-axis) is shown as a function of time (x-axis). Each column represents the percent increase in generalized R-squared from the full model to the model excluding the variable of interest.