

FIGURE S2.—Example of a strain from our genetic screen for hyper-recombination where a translocation involving chromosome VI had occurred. Markers (Lanes M) are the parental strain Y55 on the left hand side and S288C on the right hand side. A gross chromosomal rearrangement (GCR) involving chromosome VI can be observed in lane 5. Y55 chromosome positions on the gel are shown down the left hand side.