

Figure S1 Fold change (\pm SE) in trait means of mutant parent (gray bars) relative to the wt parent (dashed line); asterisks indicate significant two-sided t-test at $P < 0.05$ testing for differences between the parents. For comparison, we also plot the fold-change (\pm SE) of the epiRIL trait means relative to the wt parent (red squares). The epiRIL means are typically closer to those of the wt.