

Figure S13 decay of linkage disequilibrium, as measured using pairwise allelic correlations ( $r^2$ ), with physical distance (bp) across coverage classes as estimated with data including singletons. Red lines give the expected value of  $r^2$  following Remington et al. (2001). Intragenic pairs of SNPs were pooled across amplicons.