

Figure S1. Expected and observed eQTL as a function of sequencing depth. These down-sampling analyses were used to evaluate the power of the study. As a proxy of sequencing depth we used the number of Illumina sequencing runs. Each Illumina sequencing run corresponded to approximately two million additional reads per animal.