CORRIGENDUM

Sam68 is absolutely required for Rev function and HIV-1 production

Suhasini Modem, Kameswara R. Badri, Thomas C. Holland and Thipparthi R. Reddy

Since the publication of our paper, it has come to our attention that a reference was omitted. In addition to citing the anti-sense studies by He and colleagues (ref. 29), we should have also referenced their work on Sam68-Rev binding, which can be found in the following citation:

In addition, there was an error in the page numbers for ref. 29. The correct page numbers are 8374-8382. The authors apologize for the oversights.
