Figure 1. Gross Motor Function Measure crawling and kneeling scale scores over time. Each child’s first visit occurred when the child was able to pull himself or herself to a standing position. Each child’s final visit occurred when the child was able to take 3 unsupported steps independently. The predicted scores are fitted values representing estimated fixed effects of initial score, group, time (linear), time (quadratic), and their significant group × time interactions.